NEW YORK ISLANDERS 2 NHL Pre-Season Games MORE SEATS AVAILABLE

Saskatoon, SK - Today, Credit Union Centre is pleased to announce that 1,000 additional tickets will be made available to the public for each of the New York Islanders pre-season games on September 19th against the Calgary Flames and September 20th against the Edmonton Oilers. The additional 1,000 seats per game are part of the seating expansion happening at Credit Union Centre in preparation of the 2010 IIHF World Junior Hockey Championships.

“When these games first went on-sale on January 24th they both sold out in less than 1 hour and we are thrilled that construction is on schedule and that we can open up an additional 1,000 seats for each game” said Scott Ford Credit Union Centre’s Director of Marketing & Events. It’s going to be a Super Sports Weekend with the Blades Home Opener against the Regina Pats on Friday, September 18th followed by the New York Islanders taking on the Calgary Flames on Saturday, September 19th and the New York Islanders against the Edmonton Oilers on Sunday, September 20th. In keeping with this theme of this exciting weekend of hockey for the first 48 hours starting on September 10th at 9:00 AM the new seats go on-sale for sports fans to buy our Super Sports Package only.
